"GOOD NIGHT, OLD WORLD."

NOTED YELLOW FEVER EXPERT SENDS A BULLET THROUGH HIS BRAIN.

The Act, Deliberate and Premeditated, Caused by Supposed Inappreciation of His Labors.

Dr. Thomas Osmond Summers, late Major Surgeon in charge of fever hospital at Santiago, and a noted yellow fever expert, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head here this evening. Dependence caused by fancied lack of appreciation of his services by the Government during the Spanish war is assigned as the cause for the rash act.

Several letters written by Dr. Summers a short time before his death were found. One letter was addressed to his wife, another to Dr. W. J. Donohoe, of this city, and there was a note to the public which reads as follows:

"This pistol belongs to M. Wicko, jeweler, corner Eleventh and Franklin avenue. Please return with my thanks. 'SUMMERS.'"

On a letter head of the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons was written a poem. It is as follows:

PRIDEFUL VAIN—YALE MUNDUM. Good-night, old world—good-bye to all your joys. Your sorrows, pleasures, passions, pomp and pride. I leave you for the eternal silence of the stars; The deafness of unbounded space, where bars No longer hold the soul in thrall; Where nature can wound and nothing can heal.

Where the pure spirit, shall despise the things The sense on earth hath loved. On wings tacked in the ether of eternity— How sweet to feel from every passion free— And yet in a awful leap to take! Into the great unknown—perchance to wake To greater woes, indeed, than those we have, And hoped to bury in the silent grave.

But still the great majority is there. Why should we then, turn pale with fear, Or tremble when the hour supreme has come, As soon or later we must meet our fate?

Man's final home— The grave—at least gives rest from troubles here. And we may hope for sweet oblivion there. Then, Charon, come, I signal thee to-night. Come—row me, o'er the Styx, I've lost life's fight.

On the reverse side of the sheet on which the poem was written appeared: "And yet it is an awful leap to take into the great unknown."

The letter to his wife follows: "June 18, 1899—My Darling Wife. I have reached this point where Azeul's thread is all that is left to me. I feel well assured that your love and esteem will crown my memory when they could not bless my life. I die that you might live. Think of me as I was in the palmier days of my life, and let the mantle of your charity cover those faults which were more infirmities than sins, engendered in despondency and cultivated by disappointment. I send the bullet through my brain in proof of my heart that you may know its last throes beat for you and the ones I leave with such ineffable sorrow. Good bye. OSMOND."

The letter to Dr. Donohoe was sealed. It will be delivered to-morrow. There were other letters referring to the suicide, but Dr. Spahn, who accompanied the corpse to the morgue, and his companions objected to their being given out for publication, and the Sergeant locked the letters up.—Ex.

Bryan. The Lincoln Democrat quotes a man as saying that he was trying to arrange for a visit from Hon. William Jennings Bryan in October. It is believed that Mr. Bryan can be induced to come to Louisville from Richmond, and meet here the people of Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard, Mercer, Casey and other counties. The scheme is a great one and should have the help of everybody in the community.

True Estimate. A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to the building up of a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is an enterprising community. No power is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper properly patronized.—Rev. DeWitt Talnage.

Do you get up with a headache? Is there a bad taste in your mouth? Then you have a poor appetite and a weak digestion. You are frequently dizzy, always feel dull and drowsy. You have cold hands and feet. You get but little benefit from your food. You have no energy to work and the sharp pains of neuralgia drag through your body.

What is the cause of all this trouble? Constipated bowels.

AYER'S PILLS

will give you prompt relief and certain cure.

Keep Your Blood Pure. If you have neglected your case a long time, you had better take Ayer's Sarsaparilla also. It will remove all impurities that have been accumulating in your blood and will greatly strengthen your system.

Write the Doctor. There may be something about your case that you do not quite understand. Write the doctor. You will know how to write. You will know how to write. You will know how to write.

Excursion to Old Point Comfort, Va. The Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. has arranged a series of excursions to Old Point Comfort during the months of July, August and September.

Persons desiring to go should send in their names stating on what train they desire to go. Any further information will be cheerfully furnished by any agent, or apply to G. W. BARNY, Div. Pass. OLD GLORY. NEW YORK FASHIONS.

Yonder flag in the sky, star-gemmed and pure as an angel's wing, smiles and shines the light as it proclaims the chivalry of men, the valor of heroes, the devotion of patriots, the triumphs of liberty, equality and eternal right.

The dying patriot, whether on the flame swept crest of Bunker Hill, Gettysburg or San Juan, gazed with last and longing look upon it as the stainless emblem of all that Washington gave and Lincoln saved. That flag, our flag, the flag of liberty! Shall it be made to stand as the ensign of conquest, greed and bondage, its sacred folds wet with the blood and tears of a people struggling for liberty and independence? Forbid it, Almighty God! It was opposition to imperialism which gave that standard to the world. The blood shed in the struggle for liberty gave to its stripes streaks of the morning light, while the hands that wrote with the point of words the immortal declaration that "governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed" gathered its stars and set them in a galaxy of glory. If governments do not derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, the stripes fade, the stars lose their lustre and that glorious emblem of the rights of man becomes a meaningless rag.—Winde's Greeting Gun.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve. Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. Will Probated.

The will of Mrs. Mattie McCreary Bronson was admitted to record on Monday, county clerk's office. She divides her estate, consisting of a residence, business houses, bank stock, etc., between her husband, J. H. McCreary, and her nephew, R. H. McCreary, in equal shares.

Will Announced For Jailer.

We are authorized to state that at the proper time Mr. Peter G. Parrish, of Calcutta, will cause the execution of his will for Jailer of Madison county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Parrish is an original slave democrat and has been a faithful worker in the party. We know of no man that deserves an office for faithful service more than does Mr. Parrish.

Shooting Scrape.

On Monday Billy Turpin, of near Waco, had a quarrel over a wagon on Water street with Allen King, of the same neighborhood. Turpin drew a pistol and his brother, S. T. Turpin, they up his hand and received the bullet in the wrist the same ball passing through King's hand as it rested over his heart, passing on through his clothes and barely breaking the flesh. Turpin's wound in the wrist was trifling, though painful, and King's hand was not badly damaged.

A Home Prodigy.

A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country. You have heard that and may be able to tell its origin. But it applies somewhat here and now. When the Bicycle catalogues were out the name of Master Don Wiggins was inserted as a local trick rider of ability who would entertain the crowd; some local guys "less liked" But when our little friend came in white and gold had finished his exhibition the audience was divided in its opinion as to whether Mr. Wiggins, the expert trick rider from Paris, was superior to our little man, Wiggins. Suffice to say he won a race, and that also is another feather in his cap, as we believe that he was the only one of our city entries to hog a first prize. Little Don is all right, and the Climax challenges any other boy of his age in Kentucky, to beat him at trick riding for a five dollar gold medal.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Henderson, Ky. He has been a sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating him and rendering him unfit for his duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Perry & Thomas, druggists.

There is a difference—between Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and any other cough, cold or lung remedy. Besides that, it is a pleasurable, refreshing, and healthful food, it soothes the cough or cold at once, it cures the irritation—beats the bronchitis and inflames the lungs. 25c at all good druggists.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM ADOPTED BY THE CONVENTION AT LOUISVILLE LAST SATURDAY.

THE DEMOCRATS of Kentucky in convention assembled reaffirm without the slightest qualification, the principles and policies declared in the Democratic platform adopted at Chicago in 1896.

Our faith in bimetalism is vindicated by events. For the recovery of the restoration of the double standard was acknowledged by the President and Congress in 1897 when a commission was sent to Europe to entreat other nations to aid in establishing bimetalism, and the failure of the commission to secure European co-operation confirms the friends of the coinage in their belief that relief can only come by the independent action of the United States. The present legal ratio of 16 to 1 is the only ratio at which bimetalism can be restored and opposition to it is confined to those who oppose bimetalism at any ratio and to those who misapprehend or ignore the reasons which led three national conventions to adopt it.

We denounce the present Republican national administration for its reckless extravagance in the conduct of public affairs; for its cruel and inhuman neglect of its treatment of our soldiers and sailors during the late Spanish war; for its complete subordination to the interest of organized wealth; for its protection and encouragement of trusts and combinations; and especially for its appointment and retention in office of an attorney general who is devoted to the interests of trusts and combinations.

We call attention to the incompetency of the present Republican administration in Kentucky; to the abuses and scandals in the management of penitentiaries and asylums while under Republican control; to the laxity of the vetting of all Democratic legislation favorable to the interests of the people and hostile to the oppressions and extortions of organized wealth.

We believe the trust is the result in large measure of the politics adopted and pursued by the Republican party, chief among which are the demonization of silver, by which the volume of currency has been kept below the demands of business, and the enactment and enforcement of vicious, unwise and unpatriotic legislation, such as the protective tariff laws, known as the McKinley and Dingley bills, which have resulted in a discrimination in favor of corporate wealth and against individual enterprise. We favor the destruction of the result as well as the removal of the causes. The re-establishment of independent bimetalism at 16 to 1 and the repeal of all protective tariff laws would do more to cripple and destroy the organization and operation of the trust than any other laws.

We believe the law in Kentucky known as the anti-trust law should be so amended as to make unlawful any agreement, combination or arrangement by corporations or individuals under which, in the carrying on of any business, the prices charged should thereby be fixed, controlled or regulated. And we believe that the law should be further so amended as to provide that all contracts made by any combination, generally known as a trust, in any kind of business shall be void and not enforceable as to such trust or combination, and we especially demand that all trust controlled articles be placed on the free list.

We hereby express our continued confidence in Wm. Jennings Bryan and favor his nomination for the Presidency of the United States by the Democratic national convention of 1900.

We recommend to the Democracy of Kentucky J. C. Blackburn as the Democratic nominee for President.

No Lady Would Do Such a Thing. No lady would take her watch when out of order, to the first person who displayed the sign "Watches Regulated and Repaired." But she would carefully inquire for a man whose acknowledged skill entitled him to take in charge the delicate mechanism.

How much more careful should a woman be, when she herself is disordered, not to entrust the delicate and complex mechanism of her being to the first man or woman who displays the sign "Medical Advice Given." No sign should be trusted which says "Medical Advice Given" and stops there. Medical advice can be given only by a physician. An accredited physician, with his title with his name. Suppose a sign reads, "Medical Advice Given by a Man." What woman would not instantly say, "The fact of being a man doesn't qualify him to give medical advice. He must be a physician to do that." But suppose the sign reads: "Medical Advice Given by a Woman." Is not the fact just as patent, being a woman does not qualify her to give medical advice. The woman must be a physician to do that. Medical advice given by an unskilled woman is just as dangerous as if given by an unskilled man.

In inviting sick and ailing women to consult him by letter without charge, Dr. Pierce points out an experience and practice of over thirty years, devoted especially to diseases peculiar to women. All correspondence is treated as strictly private and is answered confidentially. Letters are promptly answered, and the answers are mailed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any reference to them. Write without fee and without fear to Dr. K. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

In the matter of State affairs, the platform indorses the election law passed by the last Legislature, known as the "Goebel law" and the law "to prevent extortionate, unfair and discriminating freight rates by transportation companies," both of which were passed over Gov. A CANNON SHOT. Dissolves a Tornado and Saves an Oklahoma Town.

A well-defined tornado passed over southern Oklahoma and would probably have blown away the town of Hennessey had not a large cannon been discharged into it. The cannon was discharged into the funnel-shaped cloud when it was within fifty yards or more of the town. The cloud immediately dissolved.

This was the second tornado which has passed near Hennessey this summer and been burst by firing a cannon. The citizens recently purchased four guns and placed one in each quarter of the town. A man is hired to watch the cannon and when a tornado comes along he is to load and fire. In this way no tornado can blow away the town, the inhabitants assert. John R. Hodges is the inventor of this scheme. He has arranged to put cannons around several other western towns.—Ex.

BOB TAYLOR TO BACHELORS. My Dear Old Solitary—Who mends your socks? Do you sew on your own buttons? How long does it take you to thread the needle? Why don't you break the cobwebs out of your ears and straighten up and get a good wife to do all these things for you? What pleasure do you find in this world without a partner? It is not good that a man should live alone. The world owes you a rib and you ought to have your ribs cracked if you don't collect the debt.

Why don't you rig up your matrimonial tackle, old boy, and go angling for a "frat"? Your old pantalones look mighty lonesome hanging there in that old dusty wardrobe without some calico to keep them company. Your room is a poor paragon without a fair Eve to adorn it. I know what is the matter with you; you are afraid of grocery bills and dry goods bills, and doctor's bills, and curtain lectures, and the overthrow of your independence and freedom of speech, or else you are afraid to "pop the question," and thus lose a golden opportunity by simply looking at her and grinning like a basketful of possum heads.

Story of a Slave. To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease in the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Perry & Thomas, Druggists.

There is one doorkeeper on guard to whom 10 to 1 must embrace the golden rule, the ten commandments and everything else that is for the good of mankind, and to whom William Jennings Bryan is the greatest that ever has been, is or will be. This doorkeeper was holding one of the side ports when Mr. John H. Chennault, a candidate for Auditor, came up. Mr. Chennault, in the excitement, had lost his badge. He was in a hurry to get inside before they should spring something.

"Can't pass without a badge," growled Cerebus.

"But, I'm a candidate," said Mr. Chennault.

"Now looky here," said the doorkeeper, surveying the candidate from head to foot as if to determine just how small a specimen he was, "there ain't but one man by the name of Chennault, and that ain't you."

"Well, who's that," asked Mr. Chennault?

"William Jennings Bryan," shouted the doorkeeper.

However, a friend who had influence came up and introduced Mr. Chennault to the doorkeeper. With the result that the candidate soon found himself in the same class with William Jennings Bryan.—Louisville Post.

County Court Days.

Paris, Bourbon county, first Monday. Richmond, Madison county, first Monday. Lexington, Fayette county, second Monday. Stanford, Lincoln county, second Monday. Georgetown, Scott county, third Monday. Danville, Boyle county, third Monday. Nicholasville, Jessamine county, third Monday. Winchester, Clark county, fourth Monday. Versailles, Woodford county, fourth Monday.

Big Times at Stanford. Judging from the following item in the Lincoln Democrat, the people over there are going to elevate lades and shove a log under it:

"Stanford proposes to celebrate the 4th of July this year in a manner appropriate to the day. It is proposed to have a procession with traction and fire engines, hook and ladder companies, bells ringing, whistles tooting, floats with different business houses represented, brass bands, a choir of 100 voices, patriotic speeches, balloon ascensions, bicycle races, fire works, Japanese lanterns, etc. Look out for the mammoth posters. Everything true."

"The fool killer nopes by his cave in the glen all the live long day and night, while his victims throng in the hounds of men and flourish and thrive in their night. The fellow who cracks at another man's jokes, and laughs in a hilarious tone at every mistake will simmer and bake when the fool killer garners his own. The man who talks politics out in the rain, and works for the party's own good, who yells himself hoarse for some other man's gain and let his wife split her own wood; the men who despise the man who allies himself to the wrong party's throne, will try in the blaze in haleydon days when the fool killer garners his own. The man who tries hard to show off his shillies—the brainless, insipid galoon—who goes to a picnic and puts on a cape for a bonnet and tries to look cute, will meet a sad doom in the gathering gloom, and the world will not sigh at his moan when he feels the kerblawack on the small of his back and the fool killer garners his own."—Pawhattan Post.

THE PASSING OF PROTECTION. [New York World.] When Andrew Carnegie declared, four years ago, that the making of steel in this country was no longer an "infant industry" in need of extravagant protection, he was denounced as a "traitor" to his party.

He proceeded to demonstrate that he spoke the truth by taking contracts for steel rails in Russia in competition with British and German manufacturers. And this year the American makers of steel rails, structural steel, machinery and various other products of iron have not only underbid European contractors on their own ground, but in China, Japan and other remote markets.

Now comes Mr. Havemeyer, President of the Sugar Trust, with his testimony that "the mother of all trusts is the customs tariff bill," and his blunt declaration that—

There probably is not an industry that requires a protection of more than 10 per cent. ad valorem, and it is to obtain what is provided over such percentages in the tariff that leads to the formation of what are commonly spoken of as "trusts."

The enormous growth during the past year of our exports of manufactured products, all highly protected, proves the absurdity as well as the injustice of the McKinley-Dingley 50 per cent. tariff, while the extraordinary multiplication of trusts attests the truth of Mr. Havemeyer's statement. The Democrats in the campaign of next year will not be so afraid of the high tariff issues as they appeared to be in 1896.

WHY NOT? The friends of a well known rich contractor and Democratic politician at Washington profess to be "astounded" at the news of his marriage to a "handsome typewriter girl" employed in one of the fashionable hotels at the capital.

On the day before this news came fashionable society in an other southern city was "shocked and surprised" at learning of the marriage of a rich manufacturer of "high social standing" to a "beautiful flower girl" who had stolen his heart while selling him buttonholes.

In both these cases the natural question of a free-born American is: why not? Is not the selling of flowers as honest and respectable a business for a woman as the making of nails is for a man? And not a young girl who has proven equal to sustaining herself and her character in a public "correspondence office" quite like to be both bright enough and good enough for any contractor, however rich?

No man, whatever his station or however much money he has made "stoope" in marrying an intelligent, virtuous and loving American girl who has had sufficient capacity and self-respect to earn an honest living.—New York World.
